

Teen Says Six Men Beat Him At Local Racetrack

KDKA) A local teenager says he was beaten up at a racetrack in Westmoreland County for being a Good Samaritan.

Justin McCarthy, of Armstrong County, said he was camping at Steel City Motocross in Salem Township and helped pull a guy out of the mud who was beaten up.

When he started to walk away, he says he was attacked by six men.

Suffering head trauma, cuts and multiple bruises, he had to be taken to a Pittsburgh hospital for treatment.

McCarthy says his attackers disappeared into a crowd of thousands.
